handsome line of wall paper. Prices to suit the people.

Small-pox has about disappeared at the Madison county pest house. The epidemic cost the county several thousand dollars.

The trial of a county road case occurred at the Madison county court for three days this week. The case came from the Buckeye neighborhood and the jury was taken to view the ground.

Lookout for Them.
A lot of counterfeit half dollars are in circulation hereabouts. As a fellow can be punished for having such money in his possession it would be well to look out for them.

Notice to Taxpayers.
Taxes are now due the City and all are respectfully requested to pay same at once. The penalty will soon be added and it will be to your interest to pay your tax now.

E. M. WALKER, M. C. L.

You Can Slip In Now.
The anti-screen law has been abolished at Stanford, and the saloons can stain their windows, have side doors or do pretty much as they please.
Bro. Walton says you can also, if you like, roll in or tumble in, just so you get in, as it looks like the council wants you to do.

Opening at Dripping.
The opening at Dripping Springs will take place Wednesday, the 15th.
Mr. Rothwell has arranged to make the day an enjoyable one and all who attend will be amply repaid for making the trip. A splendid orchestra will be on hand and the large dance hall kept open all day. A big ball will be given at night. A cordial invitation is extended all to attend.

Lookout for mad dogs.
More hades raised Saturday night.
Visit High Bridge this summer. It will pay you.

The best two horse wagon on the market at G. S. Gaines.

Pie Plant roots for fall planting. 60 to 75c per dozen at J. C. Thompsons.

Eggs for Hatching.
From prize winning Black Minorcas 15 eggs for $1.00. R. L. Elkin Henry Duncan has purchased of Wm. Cook, the lot and house on Richmond street, opposite Judge Har-nold's.

Look To Your Interest.
Best home-made buggies on the market at J. B. Ely's Paint Lick, Ky. General repairing and horseshoeing a specialty. Give us a trial. 3-183m.

Property Sold.
W. K. Shugars has sold his new and handsome residence on York street, to John Stone. As Mr. S. returned immediately to McKinney, we failed to learn the price.

Now Then!
For $10.00 I will make you a suit to your measure from any $12.50 pattern that I have left. These are good values at $15.00 and I only have a few pat-
gain. J. C. HEMPHILL.

The Spanish claim to be fighting for "Spain's honor (2)." According to history for the last 20 years the picture of Spanish honor is about as follows: Sired by Treachery, dam Cruelty; a full sister to Barbarism, both tracing to Romanism as foundation stock—Exchange.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

Mr. John L. Arnold, one of the oldest, best connected and most popular citizens, of this county, died on Wednesday. Funeral services were conducted by Elder George Gowen, on Thursday, at 3 o'clock p. m., at Lancaster Cemetery, where the body was laid to rest, in the presence of a very large crowd of relatives and friends.
His life was such as to deserve more than a passing notice, which of necessity will be deferred until next issue, in the absence of the data for such an article.

Against the Banks.
An opinion has been handed down by the U. S. court deciding that banks must pay local taxation the same as individuals are made to pay. What is known as the Hewitt law gave banks the right to pay 75 cents on the $100 in lieu of all other taxes. This law is pronounced unconstitutional and the banks will now appeal to the supreme court. It is believed the case will eventually go against the Banks, and if it should, it will close up many of the small-fry institutions in the state, they being unable to pay the enormous taxation assessed against them.
If the case finally goes against the banks, the two Lancaster institutions will have to pay a good sum into the local treasury, as the matter dates back to 1894.

The Concert.
Notwithstanding the fact that the proceeds were to be used in the noble cause of furnishing hymn books to the Lancaster soldiers, a very small audience attended the entertainment given at the Court House Monday evening.
Those who did go were highly rejoiced, as a better program was never arranged for a similar occasion. The singing of Misses Olivia Sweeney, Addie Burnside and Eliza Lusk was greatly enjoyed, as were also the recitations of Misses Albert Anderson, Elene Hatt, Lettie McRoberts and Edna Mason.
Miss May Hughes' piano solo was highly complimented and was a rich treat to the audience. Although the piano used was a miserable one, Miss Hughes succeeded admirably in demonstrating the fact that she is one of the very best performers our people have ever had the pleasure of listening to. Miss Chastine MacGregor, who is the guest of Mrs. W. R. Cook, kindly consented to sing and her solo and encore were greatly appreciated and enjoyed. Mess.
G. Bright Swinebroad and Lewis Walker delivered a few remarks at the opening and closing of the evening's entertainment. They soared about in the clouds, brushing all the cob-webs from the sky and putting a few extra touches on the moon and stars. The young ladies who planned the entertainment are entitled to much praise for their work in so noble a cause, and we regret exceedingly that so few of Lancaster's people turned out to lend a helping hand to the brave boys who have gone to the front to fight for their country.

Premium.
Wanamaker & Brown are giving each customer from $5 to $5, in the price of suits, as the customer gives that much and gets a perfect fit.
M. D. Hughes, Agent.

Mr. Henry Barnum, an old and highly respected citizen of the Paint Lick neighborhood, died at his home near that place Monday. He was highly respected and well known throughout the county.

The City Council met Monday night but did nothing of importance. The question of giving the town night precedence was not mentioned, so the marshal will continue to pick his teeth through the day and the sneak thief, fire fiend and booby boys hold full sway during the night.

Away Flew the Woodcock.
I have the best and cheapest line of Mid-summer wear ever brought to this city. Ready-to-wear coats at 50c and $1; Black Alpaca coats at $2, and genuine Crash suit at $3.50. Tailor-made, Kentucky home-spun tow linen at $8 per suit. The goods will launder perfectly. M. D. Hughes, Agt.

Temperance Lecture.
Prof. J. J. Rucker, president of Georgetown College, delivered a temperance lecture to a large audience at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Prof. Rucker is well known in Garrard, many persons here having gone to his school. He is a good speaker and earnest worker for the temperance cause and the betterment of mankind.

Intentional Oversight.
In setting up the article regarding the selection of teachers for the Graduate School, the typewriter overlooked the name of Miss Jaynie Shumate.
Miss Shumate has been connected with the school for several terms and by her efficient work and untiring energy has won the esteem of both pupils and parents. It is with pleasure we announce the fact that her services were retained by the trustees.

Mike and Tink.
Lancaster and Garrard county people will be glad to learn of the appointments just received by Captain Mike Salter and Tink Anderson to prominent positions in the army. Captain Salter was made quarter-master for the first regiment, better known as the Louisville Legion. The Legion's regular quarter-master failed to pass the physical examination, and all efforts to get him in proved in vain.
Friends of Captain Salter made a fight and succeeded Saturday in landing the appointment. He will rank as a first lieutenant and receive captain's pay, $150 per month. Captain Salter fought through the late war in the Confederate army and enjoys a reputation for gallantry and bravery. The Regiment would rather see him get a good berth than most any one, and we know the Legion men will soon form as strong ties for him as they had for their former quarter-master, McDonald. Salter had secured the place of wagon-master for the second regiment, and, at his resignation, A. Tink Anderson, also of this city, was appointed to this place. Tink will not have to be sworn into the service, but will have a number of men under him and draw $75 per month. He left for Chickamauga Tuesday and will enter upon his duties at once. Lancaster is strictly "in it" in the way of furnishing men, and the officials seem to know where to come to get true, reliable help.

Teacher's Examination.
Supt. Eliza Lusk requests THE RE-CORD to announce that an examination of white teachers will be held in her office on the 17th and 18th of this month, and for colored teachers on the 24th and 25th.

On the last Thursday in this month, the 30th, an examination for applicants for Diplomas of Graduation from the Common School course will be held in the Superintendent's office.

The little child of Mr. Height Herring died today and will be buried in the Lancaster Cemetery tomorrow, Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Killing.
Ed Clouse was lodged in jail Thursday night charged with killing W. B.
Tracy. The shooting occurred near Mt. Hebron, near the Kentucky river.
The trouble arose over the cultivation of a piece of ground. Clouse will have an examining trial today. He refuses to make any statement only that he acted in self defense. The weapon used was a 44 Colts and the shot passed through Tracy's bowels.

Prices Lower than Ever.
Tailor made suits at $12.50 to $30.
Satisfaction or no pay. You have paid $12 for ready-made suits that were not as good as Wanamaker and Brown's suits at $8, and their suits at $8.50 and $11.50 are equal to other $15 suits, being all-wool and beautiful in design and finish. The suits at $13.50 and $15 usually sell for $18 and $20, such suits usually selling for $25. A comparison of goods will prove that you will save some dollars by giving me your order. M. D. Hughes, Agent.

Our Soldier Boys.
About a dozen members of the Lancaster company promised and swore they would send us a letter from Chickamauga, but so far not one line has been received. We presume that the real life of a soldier, which they are now experiencing, gives the boys about all they can do, consequently they have no time to write to the old folks at home. The Lancaster company has finally been uniformed and will get their guns and ammunition this week. They are comfortably quartered in the great park and are drilled from four to six hours daily. A Record man will probably run down there soon and learn what the boys are doing and how they are getting along.
A report from there says it took 900 blouses, trousers and blue flannel shirts, the same number undershirts and neckwear, 3,000 pairs of stockings, 1,500 pairs of shoes and 900 campaign hats and leggings. No measures were taken. The man was asked his height and weight. If he was a tall, slim fellow he was handed a suit of "Number ones." If corpulent and broad he got "Number threes," and if "middling, lean or fat" he got "Number twos."

Marry or Fight.
Tink Anderson told a friend that several girls were so anxious to marry him that he was compelled to go away and join the army. It was either marry the whole crowd or go to the war, so he chose the latter.

The Big Show Coming.
Flaming posters announce the coming of Harris' Nickel Plate Shows.
The date is Thursday, the 17th. Save up your nickels, boys, and old folks get ready to "take the children." Harris' show has been here before and always gives satisfaction.

Through the efforts of Hon. George M. Davidson, congressman from this district, the name of Mrs. W. J. Landreau has been placed on the pension rolls at twenty-five dollars per month.
Gen. Landreau was a substantial friend to Judge Davidson and the judge is one of the few who has shown his appreciation of such friendship.

A Chance for More.
Travel on the night trains continues to increase. We heard a railroad man say that if this business continues to grow, there is a possibility of the day trains being run this way also. Some-of the know-it-its laugh at this idea, but they said we would never get the present service. We will never get any improvements in Lancaster until a number of objectors are relegated to the rear.
